Who is Alpha Gamma Xi Military Sorority?

Based in Memphis, Tennessee but serving nationally, Alpha Gamma Xi Military Sorority offers membership to current and past women of the armed forces and provides programs and initiatives focused on Service, Sisterhood, Stewardship, Scholarship, and Solidarity. Alpha Gamma Xi believes that no woman veteran should be left struggling or alone, and through its programs and 5 Pillars of Purpose, the organization seeks to be the example among military sororities.

What makes them unique?

While there are similar organizations serving women veterans, Alpha Gamma Xi is unique in its all military or veteran volunteers who understand firsthand the challenges of serving our country.

Their Programs

The primary initiative of Alpha Gamma Xi Sorority Inc is Sorors Helping to Excel and Restore Others (S.H.E.R.O.), providing support and resources to homeless or displaced women veterans. SWANS (Supporting Women and Nurturing Survivors) provides support to women (veteran and non-veteran) who have been touched by sexual assault, domestic violence, or suicide providing them with a safe space through partnerships with domestic violence shelters throughout the United States.

How Can You Help?

Alpha Gamma Xi Military Sorority welcomes military or veteran women who have served at least 2 years to consider membership. Supporters can share and promote in-person and virtual events or make a donation for the continued guidance, development, and sisterhood of women military and veterans.
